

Recommended Cases \ Protectors

Product:	Steelbook Protectors
Why\Problem Solved:	Unfortunately Steelbooks don't live up to their name in durability. Depending on finish etc they can be relatively easy to scuff or scratch. Protectors like these help protect your investment and keep your collection looking new.
Cost:	$.75-$1.25 Each	Link:	• https://www.amazon.com/dp/B08SY4NSJ6?th=1 • https://www.amazon.com/dp/B0FNNC13B6
Tips:	• These types of cases often go on sale and the more you buy at a time the cheaper they get.

Product:	Tarifold Bluray Sleeves
Why\Problem Solved:	Depending on space, you may not be able to shelve every title in your collection. These sleeves offer a nice alternative. You simply remove the art work and fold along the existing crease lines and place the disc in and file.
Cost:	$25 \ 50	Link:	https://www.amazon.com/dp/B07SGZ4FXH
Tips:	• One of my favorite movie youtube channels has a great video showing these off. • For extra protection I use cheap paper sleeves like these. Especially when a title has DVD or Bonus feature disc included. • Storage baskets like these fit these protectors great. https://www.youtube.com/embed/GX0fTq_VYs4?si=sG8-jmmbVD4vuTOT

Product:	Bluray Resealable Sleeves
Why\Problem Solved:	Slipcovers and even standard cases can get dinged up over time. Coming from a comic collecting background I wanted the equivalent to old school polybags for my movies. These keep your titles looking sharp and protected.
Cost:	$13.99 / 100	Link:	• Amazon Link

Tips:

- These fit many but not ALL slip cases. Other sleeves are available to fit larger titles. You may just need to search them out.

Revision #1

Created 17 March 2026 01:01:53 by Jason

Updated 17 March 2026 01:26:50 by Jason